

16th Annual Community Celebration of
Dr. Martin Luther King Jr.'s Birthday

Keeping the Dream Alive 365

A free event for all ages and cultures

- Join us in this multicultural celebration
- Hear the inspiring words of Dr. King spoken in multiple languages
- Enjoy live dance and musical performances by local artists
- Taste diverse cuisine

Saturday, January 15, 2011

10:30 a.m. – 12 noon

Northeast Wisconsin Technical College
Student Center

2740 West Mason Street, Green Bay

(Enter from Country Club Road and watch for signs.)

*For more information about this event: (920) 498-6997 or
(920) 465-2029,
www.browncomlk.org*

*Artwork inspired by the 2010 MLK Celebration Poster/Creative Writing Contest entry by Alex Poncé, Southwest High School.
Alex won second place in the 10-12 grade category.*

Event organizers: Family and Childcare Resources of N.E.W., Green Bay Area Public Schools, Northeast Wisconsin Technical College, St. Norbert College, United Hmong and Asian American Community Center, UW-Green Bay, and community volunteers.

Major supporters of this event include:

Additional support for the celebration has been provided by a variety of organizations that will be recognized during the celebration.